

IQCap is a full electronic patient management application. Keep track of patient visits, examinations fast and reliable. Adding, viewing and printing patient data like personal details, examination results and images never was easier.

IQCap includes a USB capturing device and a wireless controller which allows you to connect any video source (ultrasound, colposcope, dental camera etc). You can capture still images, real-time video during the examinations and save it for future reference.

- Patients Files - Personal Details
- Exams Management
- Doctors Management
- Appointment Management
- Exams History
- Patient Visits History
- Patient Visits Images
- Visits / Exams Statistics
- Connect Ultrasound - Colposcope - Dentist Camera or any other source of videos / images
- Wired & Wireless Video and Image Capture
- Multiuser Support
- Statistics - Exams Printouts

